Making Progress in History:

This sheet aims to give you an overview of the kinds of things good historians are able to do. During Key Stage 3 you will be given opportunities to improve your skills as an historian. Your feedback this year will keep referring back to the 6 things we believe good historians are able to do. This will help you to set yourself targets and get better at History. Every assessment you do will give you a number of points, which will help you keep track of your progress as the year goes on.

What Do Good Historians Do?

1. Good Historians Explain Why Things Happen (LO1).

   They can show how events have many causes and how these link together (LO1.1). They can see that some causes are more important than others (LO1.2) and that things happen due to the actions of people but also other causes eg. the economy or politics (LO1.3)

2. Good Historians Are Skilful At Using Evidence (LO2).

   They can use evidence to make suggestions about what the past was like (LO2.1). They can compare different sources (LO2.2) and decide on the most useful ones to find out about a topic (LO2.3). They are also careful to think about how reliable evidence is (LO2.4&5)

3. Good Historians Think About Different Views In The Past (LO3).

   They understand that people in the past had very different ideas about the world than people today (LO3.1). They think about the time in which people lived and how this affected them (LO3.2). They use evidence to empathise with people in the past (LO3.3), and they recognise that people had very different experiences depending on who they were and where they came from (LO3.4)

4. Good Historians Understand How Things Changed Or Stayed The Same (LO4).

   They understand that things in the past developed and changed over time (LO4.1). They understand that sometimes things stayed the same whilst other things developed rapidly (LO4.2). They can talk about turning

5. Good Historians Understand Other Historians' Interpretations of the Past (LO5).

   They can identify what other people have said about the past (LO5.1) and understand people’s opinions of historical events (LO5.2). They carefully consider why people have different interpretations of the past

6. Good Historians Have Detailed Knowledge And Can Write Clearly (LO6).

   They have a detailed understanding of different periods of history and can use this knowledge to explain things (LO6.1) They are able to write in clear paragraphs (LO6.2) and build good historical arguments (LO6.3)
Where am I in History?

As you go through the year you will gain points for each of the 6 assessments you complete. This page is for you to fill in every time you get assessment feedback. Make sure you update this each time. You should set yourself a goal of where you would like to be by the end of the year.
Making Progress in History:

This sheet aims to give you an overview of the kinds of things good historians are able to do. During Key Stage 3 you will be given opportunities to improve your skills as an historian. Your feedback this year will keep referring back to the 6 things we believe good historians are able to do. This will help you to set yourself targets and get better at History. Every assessment you do will give you a number of points, which will help you keep track of your progress as the year goes on.

What Do Good Historians Do?

1. Good Historians Explain Why Things Happen (LO1).

They can show how events have many causes and how these link together (LO1.1). They can see that some causes are more important than others (LO1.2) and that things happen due to the actions of people but also other causes eg. the economy or politics (LO1.3)

2. Good Historians Are Skilful At Using Evidence (LO2).

They can use evidence to make suggestions about what the past was like (LO2.1). They can compare different sources (LO2.2) and decide on the most useful ones to find out about a topic (LO2.3). They are also careful to think about how reliable evidence is (LO2.4)

3. Good Historians Think About Different Views In The Past (LO3).

They understand that people in the past had very different ideas about the world than people today (LO3.1). They think about the time in which people lived and how this affected them (LO3.2). They use evidence to empathise with people in the past (LO3.3), and they recognise that people had very different experiences depending

4. Good Historians Understand How Things Changed Or Stayed The Same (LO4).

They understand that things in the past developed and changed over time (LO4.1). They understand that sometimes things stayed the same whilst other things developed rapidly (LO4.2). They can talk about turning points in history, and judge the pace and amount of change (LO4.3)

5. Good Historians Understand Other Historians’ Interpretations of the Past (LO5).

They can identify what other people have said about the past (LO5.1) and understand people’s opinions of historical events (LO5.2). They carefully consider why people have different interpretations of the past (LO5.3) and think about how this affects their reliability. (LO5.4)

6. Good Historians Have Detailed Knowledge And Can Write Clearly (LO6).

They have a detailed understanding of different periods of history and can use this knowledge to explain things (LO6.1) They are able to write in clear paragraphs (LO6.2) and build good historical arguments (LO6.3)
WHERE AM I IN HISTORY?

As you go through the year you will gain points for each of the 6 assessments you complete. This page is for you to fill in every time you get assessment feedback. Make sure you update this each time. You should set yourself a goal of where you would like to be by the end of the year.
Making Progress in History:

This sheet aims to give you an overview of the kinds of things good historians are able to do. During Key Stage 3 you will be given opportunities to improve your skills as an historian. Your feedback this year will keep referring back to the 6 things we believe good historians are able to do. This will help you to set yourself targets and get better at History. Every assessment you do will give you a number of points, which will help you keep track of your progress as the year goes on.

What Do Good Historians Do?

1. Good Historians Explain Why Things Happen (LO1).
   They can show how events have many causes and how these link together (LO1.1). They can see that some causes are more important than others (LO1.2) and that things happen due to the actions of people but also other causes eg. the economy or politics (LO1.3).

2. Good Historians Are Skilful At Using Evidence (LO2).
   They can use evidence to make suggestions about what the past was like (LO2.1). They can compare different sources (LO2.2) and think about which pieces of evidence are best for answering questions (LO2.3).

3. Good Historians Think About Different Views In The Past (LO3).
   They understand that people in the past had very different ideas about the world than people today (LO3.1). They think about the time in which people lived and how this affected them (LO3.2).

4. Good Historians Understand How Things Changed Or Stayed The Same (LO4).
   They understand that things in the past developed and changed over time (LO4.1). They understand that sometimes things stayed the same whilst other

5. Good Historians Understand Other Historians’ Interpretations of the Past (LO5).
   They can identify what other people have said about the past (LO5.1) and understand people’s opinions of historical events (LO5.2).

6. Good Historians Have Detailed Knowledge And Can Write Clearly (LO6).
   They have a detailed understanding of different periods of history and can use this knowledge to explain things (LO6.1) They are able to write in clear para-
WHERE AM I IN HISTORY

As you go through the year you will gain points for each of the 6 assessments you complete. This page is for you to fill in every time you get assessment feedback. Make sure you update this each time. You should set yourself a goal of where you would like to be by the end of the year.